

Action for blind people

Do you have sight loss?

Are you experiencing housing problems?

We can help

Action for Blind People can advise on a wide range of options to improve your housing situation

As a national charity, we provide free and confidential support for blind and partially sighted people in all aspects of their lives.

Our Housing Service is designed to help you live in the home of your choice, as independently as possible. Our Housing Coordinators are trained to help you understand your rights, and advise you of practical solutions to any problems you may be experiencing.

Whether you own or rent your home, are living with someone else, are homeless, or at risk from losing your home, we can help.

We also work with housing providers and other professionals to help them understand the impact of sight loss and the additional barriers to independence it creates.

“Your service was invaluable at a most horrific time. I found staff at Action for Blind People not only professional, but also caring and understanding.”

Susan from Liverpool

We can help you:

- Find a more suitable home if; your present housing no longer meets your needs, you are homeless, or you are at risk of losing your home
- Resolve landlord, tenancy or housing finance problems and access specialist debt advice
- Find ways to improve your situation if you are struggling with certain facilities in your home, such as adaptations with stairs, the bathroom or kitchen
- Get practical assistance with daily living tasks to help you to improve your independence and remain in your present home
- Resolve antisocial behaviour or neighbour nuisance problems
- Improve housing conditions such as disrepair, poor heating and energy efficiency, security and safety concerns

“I’m now living independently and feel safe and secure in my new home. Your support means so much to me; it really has changed my life.”

David from Brighton

Action understands that everyone's needs are different; that's why our services are tailored for you as an individual.
